Take more steps forward, listen to the humming
Walk and breath and tell me everything
It's just a game of stranger things than me
I can't hear, so scream some more!

I don't feel anything
Or maybe i'm just dreaming
I'm guessing it's just me
And i'm imagining things
But that time
And now that I remember clearly
A monster came and made me say
That

Things are going differently
And now the world is changing
Just flowing in the breeze
And sense the pulsing feeling
Take control
And let me show you everything
Today's the day you say goodbye
Oh

Making everything forgotten
And feel complete, I am ok

When his eyes close a third one opens
Everything seen when he can see
Laughable, yes, it is quite silly
Ich werde nie aufhören zu lachen
Wires and dials, beeping noises
Where am I? when are you? who are him?
Even if I can't make it alive
Ich werde nie aufhören zu träumen

Don't mind the feeling, it's a little eerie
Forward, forward, on and on so
Nothing is possibly stranger than you
You're beautiful, simply wonderful

When his eyes close a third one opens
Everything seen when he can see
Laughable, yes, it is quite silly
Ich werde nie aufhören zu schreien
Wires and dials, beeping noises
Where am I? when are you? who are him?
Even if I can't make it alive
Was immer, es ist mir egal

In a cocoon of machinery
And a face similar to his

I was never mine in the first place
Auf wiedersehen, ich tut mir leid
Wires and dials, screaming noises
Where am I? when are you? who are him?
Or am i just another being
Maybe i'm them or of the sort

Take more steps forward, listen to the humming
Walk and breath and tell me everything
It's just a game of stranger things than me
I can't hear, so scream some more
